

YOUR MEDIA VISION IN FILM OR BOOKS

Do you have a special vision of a media project that you feel compelled or super interested in doing? Is it time to stop dreaming and take action?

Have you had a longing to create an original book or film but neither had the time nor the expertise- or just wanted a collaborator or partner to take with you on your journey? That's why I founded New Galaxy Enterprises- to help ambitious, busy, but highly creative people realize their own special media dream. I also have a number of proprietary products that I have in mind or have partially written that I could use an investor/collaborator to partner with me.
