

A FEW GREAT SONGS BY STEPHANIE SLEVIN

Stephanie Slevin's songs regularly appear on Threshold Radio. She is truly an amazing singer-songwriter with a highly diverse and immensely strong inventory of original and memorable compositions.

An wonderfully, enigmatic spiritual song with an unforgettable melody.

"Baby Brother, we looked out for each other, didn't we?"

Stephanie Slevin looks at all sides of life- and sometimes her songs take on a very folk ambiance. Shall we dance- On Moonlight Bay? A bittersweet love song – a damaged damsel does not give up.

Here is a fascinating interview with Stephanie on Phoneix FM

THE MYSTERIOUS WORLD OF SINGER/SONGWRITER, STEPHANIE

SLEVIN

According to a 2011 survey, quoting from a 2011 CBS article, "Angels don't just sing at Christmastime." For most Americans, they're a year-round presence." A new Associated Press-GfK poll shows that 77 percent of adults believe these ethereal beings are real. Belief is primarily tied to religion, with 88 percent of Christians, 95 percent of evangelical Christians and 94 percent of those who attend weekly religious services of any sort saying they believe in angels. But belief in angels is fairly widespread even among the less religious. A majority of non-Christians think angels exist, as do more than 4 in 10 of those who never attend religious services.

Still, have you ever met a songwriter whose songs are suggested to them by angelic whispers? If not, meet Stephanie Slevin.
